

COURTESY CALL ON THE HIGH COMMISSIONER BY HIS IMPERIAL MAJESTY

On Tuesday 28th November, 2017, his Imperial Majesty Alayeluwa Ooni Adeyeye Enitan Babatunde Ogunwusi Ojaja II, 51st Ooni of Ife with thirteen (13) Obas from the south west of Nigeria were at the Nigeria High Commission, London to pay a courtesy call on the High Commissioner, His Excellency Ambassador George Adesola Oguntade, CON, CFR

His Imperial Majesty's royal drive and passion have been a catalyst for economic, education, social-cultural growth and development of our beloved country Nigeria. His is presently on a tour of America and Europe advocating the role of tradition in government and blending tradition with modernity. His Global outreach initiative is dedicated to youth emancipation by complementing government efforts on educational and empowering Nigerian youth

His Imperial Majesty flanked by His Excellency the High Commissioner on the left and the Deputy High Commissioner, Ambassador Kabiru Bala.

Above: His Imperial Majesty, the Ooni -Risa of Ile-Ife presenting The Ambassador with a framed carving depicting the major ethnic groups in Nigeria. Below: The Ambassador bidding His Imperial Majesty farewell.

Information Section
Nigeria HighCommission
London