

Comptroller- General of Nigerian Immigration Service in London

On 12 October, 2016, the Acting High Commissioner, His Excellency, Mr Adah Simon Ogah was paid a courtesy visit by the Comptroller-General of the Nigerian Immigration Service, Mr Muhammed Babandede, MFR.

During the visit, The Comptroller-General disclosed that he was in the United Kingdom (UK) for a meeting with UK immigration authorities to discuss potential areas for cooperation between the two countries.

His Excellency highlighted the Mission's areas of concern with regard to immigration status of many Nigerians in the UK. Responding, the Comptroller-General assured His Excellency that he would be raising the areas of concern with the authorities during his meeting.

Mr Muhammed Babandede, is pictured (middle) with His Excellency (right) and Mr. V.M. Udoyen (Minister, Head, Immigration, Nigeria High Commission, London)